The group of up to 20 suspects have been spotted in the area of Sforth Road, near Vicarage Place and Queensbury Road. They are reportedly threatening and verbally abusing people who are waiting at the bus stops. Most of the attacks have happened in the past two weeks, resulting in damaged buses and a bus driver receiving a minor injury. During the most recent incident on January 11, a woman was kicked in the back as she waited for a bus in order to walk the short distance to her home on Sforth Road. The woman suffered a wound on her back, but declined to be taken to hospital. Police have been approached by the victim and have promised to be reviewing CCTV footage from the bus stop. If anyone witnessed an incident or who has information that could assist with the investigation, contact police on 020 8785 4567 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111. "My wife and I have used Fast Freight moving several times in the past. We have found them to be very responsive, efficient, and honest. When I'm going to move some equipment from my company's main office in Ohio to my home in Indiana, they get it done. They never take unnecessary steps and keep me informed as to the progress of my equipment, including when it is picked up and when it is delivered to my home. I consider Fast Freight my window to the world." Lars B., Director of Computer Hardware Sales & Service "I have never dealt with anyone with a personal touch quite like Eric. I'm very, very happy with my moving experience. Since moving to Indianapolis, I have used Fast Freight to move everything from a fridge and television to a two car garage and several computers. As a small business owner, it is important to me that all the trucks I use be well maintained. I have nothing but good things to say about Eric and his team. They communicate well and put
